

geoVISION International

816 S.E. Polk Street
Camas, Washington
98607-2240 U.S.A.

PRESS RELEASE

(For Immediate Release)

Announcing...a new GEOS magazine to the Commodore market.

geoVISION International is a bi-monthly laser printed publication with an average of 28 - 32 pages per issue. The Premier Issue of geoVISION International will debut January 1993, and will contain many of the best columns once found in Commodore and GEOS magazines and newsletters, as well as many added new ones. The Art Gallery (Reviews of GEOS artists and their works), Reviews (Descriptive reviews of new software), New Users (Tips and instructions), Programming (Becker Basic - GeoBasic - GeoProgrammer), User Groups - BBS's - Publications (A FREE listing of GEOS supported User Groups, BBS's, and Newsletters), Telecommunications (Q-Link - GEIE - CompuServe), Editorial, Letters (Suggestions, questions, and answers from readers), News (Rumors and news of future programs), and Classifieds (FREE to subscribers). Each issue follows a theme and will also include at least two feature articles.

geoVISION International is in competition with no one. gVI wants you to know about ALL the sources of GEOS material as well as how to contact them. geoVISION International will be YOUR eyes and ears to find what YOU want and need. Give it a try and get geoVISION.

U.S. subscription rates by First Class Mail are $21.00 a year for six issues or $4.00 for a single issue. Washington residents must add their local sales tax. Mexican and Canadian Air Mail or International Surface Mail is $27.00 a year or $5.00 for a single issue. International Air Mail is $33.00 a year or $6.00 for a single issue.

For those users looking for GEOS software that have no access to the networks or a user group library, geoVISION International offers a bi-monthly disk covering each area of the operating system. Fonts, Desk Accessories, Applications, Drivers, Auto Exec's, Calc and File templates, and Clip-art. Six disks of Public Domain and Shareware a year. Each disk comes out on the opposite month from the magazine.

Disk subscriptions by First Class Mail in the U.S. are $30.00 a year for 6 disks or $5.50 for a single disk. Washington residents must add their local sales tax. Mexican and Canadian Air Mail or International Surface Mail is $39.00 a year or $6.50 for a single disk. International Air Mail is $45.00 a year or $7.50 for a single disk.

SUBSCRIBE TODAY and become a Charter Subscriber to the ultimate source of GEOS material. When you have geoVISION, you'll see GEOS in a whole new light. Subscribe to both and get geoVISION International every month.